Dear Renate,

You outdid yourself for our "4th Annual Headlamp Birthday Party" in February.

When you and I first talked about how you might customize labels for the party, I wondered what we would come up with. When I ran out of time, you not only stepped in, but you found the perfect way to display a headlamp, complete with Mt. Everest in the background. I wouldn't have thought of doing that, but you know it added a very special touch to the party for Bob and me.

All of our friends loved the labels on the bottles, and even more, the wine we served with dinner. The wines we put on the table as part of the centerpiece display didn't last long, because once a bottle was opened, it went quickly!

Your recommendation of a red and a white table wine worked well with the dinner BML Catering planned. As well, the wine we gave as gifts with the special labels was perfect. Our 3 friend the party is in honor of were touched, especially the friend who drinks non-alcoholic wine. She thought it was great to have her own special label! The friend we gave the raspberry ice wine to shared with all of us. It was delicious.

I couldn't have come up with everything on my own, and I'm very pleased that your artistic talent and creativity added to our party.

Thank you for all your help, making a fun event even more spectacular. I can't wait to see what you do next February!

Sincerely,

Dorie Dawkins
